SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN & ADULTS

DIGITAL RESILIENCE: LUCY FAITHFULL FOUNDATION NATIONAL SAFEGUARDING WEEK 2025

Friday 14th November 2025
9:30am - 12.00pm

For all adults, as technology and the internet changes, so does the risk to children. This webinar will explore how to keep children and young people safe online, and will increase your confidence in communicating effectively about internet safety. The webinar will also help understand legislation, concerning behaviours online, and consider the development of a digital safety plan.

Facilitated by the Lucy Faithfull Foundation Wales

Lucy Faithfull Foundation Wales (previously known as Stop It Now! Wales) is part of the Lucy Faithfull Foundation, a child protection charity dedicated to protecting children and preventing child sexual abuse before it happens. They work across Wales to make sure children are safe. Since 2008, they have worked with the Welsh Government, charities, frontline services and the general public to protect children.

Target Audience: Social Workers, Managers, Police Officers, Health Professionals, Teachers, Youth Workers, Youth Offending Teams, Residential Care Officers & Relevant Third Sector Organisations
