ENSURING A POSITIVE CULTURE OF SAFEGUARDING

NEW PATHWAYS

NATIONAL SAFEGUARDING WEEK 2025

Monday 10th November 2025, 9:30am - 11.00am

This session will provide an overview of what a positive culture of safeguarding is, why it's necessary for every organisation/setting, and how to ensure you have one that complies with various safeguarding legislation and guidance.

This session will take you through the various elements of creating, embedding and strengthening a positive culture of safeguarding into every facet of your day-to-day operations.

Nicole James is Senior Training and Development Officer at New Pathways and a subject expert on the Wales Safeguarding Procedures. She provides safeguarding training across Wales for local authorities, third sector organisations and education settings, in addition to a variety of other topics including Trauma Informed Practice and Staff Wellbeing.

New Pathways offers a full range of free specialist crisis, advocacy, wellbeing and counselling services. Widely regarded throughout the UK as a leading organisation in their field, their services support nearly 10,000 people each year, while their training department, which has been delivering expert courses for over 20 years, delivers learning to over 5,000 practitioners each year.
